The adventure begins in Barcelona where you will spend the first four days exploring Spain's most cosmopolitan city, rich in history and filled with beautiful works of art and world famous architecture. On the 5th day you travel to Pamplona for a pintxos tour and lunch in the historic quarter before transferring to your hotel facing La Concha Beach in San Sebastian-Donostia on the Basque coast. On the 8th day you travel to Bilbao with a stop in Gernika-Lumo, the center of Basque culture and history, and the inspiration for Picasso's controversial masterpiece "Guernica". Following a visit to the Peace Museum and lunch, you will continue on to Bilbao, one of Spain's most dynamic cities, whose transformation since the arrival of Frank Gehry's Guggenheim Museum, has been nothing less than spectacular.
