- ▶ Visit Braga, one of the most beautiful cities in Portugal.
- ▶ Explore the World Heritage City of Guimaraes.
- ▶ Take in the sights, smell and flavors of market day in Ponte de Lima.
- ▶ Tour the Albariño wineries of the Rias Baixas.
- ▶ Visit the Celtic ruins of Monte Santa Tegra atop the village of A Guarda.
- ▶ You have an option of adding one day to visit Fátima from Lisbon and an extra day for a visit to Santiago de Compostela (Galicia).

The adventure begins with five days in the historic city of Lisbon, one of Europe's most popular destinations. Enjoy the springlike temperatures during the winter months and its cool summers. After exploring the city and visiting the World Heritage Sites of Evora, Sintra and the sleepy fishing village of Cascais, you will venture north on the Alta Pendicular, the high-speed train, to Porto, one of the most ancient cities in Europe. Using Porto as a base, you will be able to explore northern Portugal, including day trips to Braga, Guimaraes, Ponte de Lima, A Guarda, Coimbra, and the Douro River Valley for port tastings and lunch at Restaurant DOC in Flogosa.
