Muga de Beloso

This is the 3rd luxury hotel of the Barcelona based Alma Hotel Group to open and the 2nd in Spain. The first, Schlosshotel im Grunewald, is considered the most beautiful hotel in the most prestigious neighborhood in the German capital of Berlin and sits surrounded by gardens. The second, the Palacio de Villapanés, a beautifully restored 18th century stone palace, sits in the heart of Sevilla's romantic Santa Cruz quarter.

Muga de Beloso is the only hotel in the Alma Group built from the ground up instead of being a reversion of an existing palace. Thus, the exterior is strikingly modern and the interior design clean-lined and contemporary.
